

"Life is like a play; it's not the length but the excellence of the acting that matters"
Seneca, Roman Philosopher

FORT MILL COMMUNITY PLAYHOUSE

FORT MILL COMMUNITY PLAYHOUSE

This year, 2010, FMCP celebrates 30 years of presenting outstanding productions showcasing talented local artists. To celebrate this anniversary, we are reprising 5 plays that you know and love. Also in celebration of our 30 years, we welcome you to join us by becoming a member and a part of the Playhouse family. Take a look and join today; there is something for everyone!

Musical Production - By Stephen Sondheim, Burt Shevelove & Larry Gelbart

Mar 4, 5, 6 & 11, 12, 13 @ 7:30p & Mar 7 Matinee @ 3:00p

A slave named Pseudolus attempts to win his freedom by helping his young master, Hero, woo the girl next door, courtesan Philia. Pseudolus has to outsmart Hero's parents, the slave-master, Lycus and the man that has already paid for Philia, Miles Gloriosus. The plot displays many hilarious classic elements such as puns, the slamming of doors, and mistaken identity on social class.

Spring Production - By Mignon Ballard (Fort Mill)

May 6, 7, 8 & 13,14, 15 @ 7:30p & May 16 Matinee@ 3:00p

The Play opens as a group of Fort Mill men congregate on the bandstand and talk of the early days of the town. Their tales lead us from the mid 1760s when the Catawbas welcomed the first European settler, Thomas Kanawha Spratt, to the fight for independence, to the War Between the States and beyond.

Youth Production - By Kim Esop-Wylie

Jul 16, 17 & 23, 24, @ 7:30p & Jul 18 Matinee @ 3:00p

This short play, weaves six of Aesop's most famous fables into a show that's fun, fast-paced, and full of surprises. Stories: The Dog and The Bone; The Tortoise and The Hare; The Lion and The Mouse; The Fox and The Grapes; The Miller, His Son And The Donkey, and The Country Maid.

Dinner Theatre Production By Laddy Sarkin (Rock Hill)

Sep 16,17,18 & 24, 25 Cash Bar 630, Dinner 700, Show 800

The old fishing pier out on the end of Cypress Lake was the favorite hang out for three best friends Curley, Gordon and Frog when they were kids. Then come the pressures and problems of middle age. Attempting to recapture the friendship and settle all disputes, they go on an overnight fishing trip like old times where they come to the realization that life is too precious and too short to let true friendship get away.

Our Fall Production - By Barbara Robinson

Nov 4, 5, 6, & 11, 12, 13 @ 7:30p & Nov 7 Matinee @ 3:00p

The Herdman's are the worst kids in the history of the world, so no one is prepared when this outlaw family invades church one Sunday and decides to take over the annual Christmas pageant. None of them has ever heard the Christmas story before. Their interpretation of the tale has a lot of town folk up in arms. But it will make this pageant the most unusual anyone has seen.
